GLOCK Donates to the National Rifle Association at the 145th NRA Annual Meeting

GLOCK Inc. made significant donations at the recent 145th NRA Annual Meeting in Louisville, Kentucky.

Josh Dorsey, Vice President at GLOCK, presented the checks on May 20, 2016. Accepting for the NRA was NRA President, Allan D. Cors and the NRA Executive Director of General Operations, R. Kyle Weaver. The NRA Whittington Center and Whittington Adventure Camp were represented by Executive Director Wayne Armacost. Glen Hoyer, Director of the NRA Law Enforcement Division, accepted the annual donation of 30 GLOCK pistols.

In honor of GLOCK's 30th Anniversary in the United States, GLOCK presented the NRA National Firearms Museum with one of the 30 custom engraved GLOCK 17 Gen4 pistols, engraved by Master Engraver, Mark Hoechst. Accepting the one-of-a-kind pistol was NRA Museums Director, Jim Supica and Senior Curator, Philip Schreier.

Glock donated a specially engraved pistol to the National Firearms Museum to celebrate Glock's 30th anniversary.

"I vividly remember, as a new curator at the NRA, when GLOCK donated a factory cut-away to us," said Schreier. "It was the newest and most modern gun that we had in the collection for quite awhile. Now, 27 years later, we are delighted and proud to have received this 30th Anniversary pistol. A physical reminder of the special relationship that GLOCK, the NRA and the NRA Museums have had from the beginning."

$50,000 to the National Rifle Association (NRA)
Since 2010, GLOCK has donated $350,000 to the NRA, America's foremost defender of Second Amendment rights. The NRA advocates for the promotion of firearm ownership, as well as marksmanship, firearm safety and the protection of hunting and self-defense in the United States.

$50,000 to the NRA Whittington Center

Since 2010, GLOCK has donated $350,000 to the NRA Whittington Center, the most comprehensive shooting facility in America today, complete with 15 shooting ranges, classrooms and a dining facility. It hosts recreational shooting and guided hunts as well as camping, hiking, mountain biking and horse-back riding activities.

$15,000 to the NRA Whittington Center Adventure Camp

Since 2005, GLOCK has donated $180,000 to the NRA Whittington Center Adventure Camp, a unique place where young men and women have the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of pistol, rifle and shotgun shooting in a positive environment.

30 pistols to the NRA Law Enforcement Division (LED)

GLOCK donated 30 pistols to the LED Competitions this year. One of the events held in Albuquerque, NM, is the NRA's premiere annual shooting competition where Law Enforcement officers from around the globe compete to test their shooting skills.

GLOCK 30th Anniversary Pistol to the NRA National Firearms Museum

This exclusive pistol was presented to the NRA for the exceptional relationship that has contributed to the success of GLOCK. The pistol includes a limited production serial number and a certificate of authenticity signed by Gaston Glock.

NRA LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER OF THE YEAR

Every day, dozens and dozens of law enforcement officers across America do something outstanding, risking their lives, saving lives, or just going above and beyond the line of duty to protect and serve.

NRA's Law Enforcement Officer of the Year Award was established in 1993 and recognizes an exceptional act or service by a law enforcement officer and is administered by the NRA Law Enforcement Division. Nominations are accepted from anyone having knowledge of the nominee's actions. This includes, but is not limited to, the nominee's agency head, other law enforcement officials, elected officials, fellow officers, community leaders, interested citizens, and NRA members.

You must know an officer who should be nominated for the National Rifle Association's Law Enforcement Officer of the year.

For eligibility information, award categories, and complete information visit our web site at <http://le.nra.org/officer-of-the-year.aspx>

Nominations can be sent at any time throughout the year but must be received by November 1.

Call 703-267-1632 or send an email to mlipp@nrahq.org for more information.

NRA Officer of the Year Award recipients receive an engraved pistol from Smith & Wesson.

Ed Nowicki, long-time NRA Member and avid supporter of the NRA's Law Enforcement Division, founded the very pro-law enforcement officer page on Facebook. With over 100,000 followers, Police Supporter is a Police Safe Zone, meaning that cop bashing is not tolerated and cop haters are totally banned from the page. Everything posted on Police Supporter is positive concerning the men and women of law enforcement.

"We try to show the positive side of law enforcement which happens all across the nation each day. The dominant left-leaning media does selective editing so they can show law enforcement in the most negative light," states Ed Nowicki. The typical Police Supporter is a current or retired LEO, along with relatives, friends, neighbors or anyone who cares about law enforcement officers.

Feel free to call Ed at 262-295-8500 if you have any questions. Visit Police Supporter on Facebook at www.facebook.com/policesupporter/

REDUCED NRA MEMBERSHIP DUES FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

As a law enforcement officer, you can obtain a full benefit NRA membership for only $20 per year, with similar discounts for 2-year, 3-year, 5-year and Life Memberships.

The NRA has many benefits for law enforcement officers, such as:

As a public law enforcement officer your survivor is eligible for a $35,000 Line of Duty Death Benefit if you are killed in the line of duty. This coverage is part of your membership and no action is required when you join the NRA. If a line of duty death occurs, your employment as a public law enforcement officer is verified at the time of death.

You may apply for the Jeanne E. Bray Memorial Scholarship. This program offers college scholarships of up to $2,500 per semester (up to $5,000 per year for a maximum of four years) to dependent children of any public law enforcement officer killed in the line of duty who was an NRA member at the time of death, and to dependent children of any current or retired law enforcement officers who are living and have current NRA membership.

You can purchase, through the NRA Endorsed Insurance Program, Retired and Off-Duty Self Defense Liability Insurance. This affordable insurance covers your criminal and civil defense costs, which generally average less than $10,000 for retired and off-duty law enforcement officers. It also covers reimbursement for criminal defense costs when you are acquitted of charges and bodily injury and damage caused by the use of a firearm.

$2,500 of ArmsCare coverage with your NRA membership. This plan covers insured firearms, air guns, bows and arrows against theft, accidental loss, and damage. Insurance must be activated.

Annual members receive $5,000 of Accidental Death and Dismemberment coverage at NO COST to you. The plan covers accidents at, or to and from, an NRA event, and accidents that occur during the use of firearms or hunting equipment while hunting. Insurance must be activated at time of renewal. (Does not include Junior membership.)

Life members receive $10,000 of Accidental Death and Dismemberment coverage at NO COST to you. The plan covers accidents at, or to and from, an NRA event; and accidents that occur during the use of firearms or hunting equipment while hunting. Insurance must be activated at time of upgrade to Life member status.

If you are interested in the NRA Law Enforcement Membership Discount, please contact the Law Enforcement Division at LE@nrahq.org.

International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association 2017 International Training Conference & Expo

ILEETA International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association

BY HARVEY HEDDEN
ILEETA EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainer Association will hold its 2017 International Training Conference & Expo March 20-25, 2017 at the Union Station Doubletree in St. Louis, MO. The conference will include more than 130 courses geared towards criminal justice trainers and educators and will also include certifications, armorer courses and a live fire program.

The event is the largest gathering of law enforcement trainers in the world and features a who's who of training. Instructor proposals are now being sought through 10/31/16. For more details check out the ILEETA Conference Information page at <http://ileeta.org/conference-information> for more details. To save money, register online for the 2017 ILEETA Conference before January 1, 2017 for only $377.

The ILEETA Expo is open to all ILEETA members, sworn and retired law enforcement and members of the military. It will feature more than 130 vendors of law enforcement products and services representing the cutting edge in technology, training and other resources.

The beautiful 533-room, 120-year-old Union Station Doubletree is on the National Register of Historic Places and is located in the heart of St. Louis close to restaurants, attractions, and a Metrolink station for easy access to Lambert Airport. Special ILEETA room rates start at $139/night and includes parking.

To make your reservation and get this rate, go to the ILEETA reservation page. Visit the Union Station Doubletree information page for more details about the features of this property. The ILEETA Conference isn't just about great training, it's an opportunity to network with other trainers, exchange ideas, and recharge your engine for the road ahead. Whether you a new trainer or a veteran instructor, the ILEETA conference has what you need to better prepare those who protect our communities.
